of Addictions, Rhonda Lenair

"To move and radiate truth through human satellites representing and offering solutions (to those which) conflict and impede humanity is the selfless goal of self(s)." - Rhonda Lenair

Over the last two decades, many people have inquired if Rhonda would teach the work she has dedicated her life to. Rhonda has affirmed that she would teach someday as it has always been in her consciousness to fulfill this deed. According to Rhonda, "Un-timed truth needs to meet its time to become relevant, thus profited by...When the time is ripe to pick the fruit, one does it or it will perish..."

And now, Rhonda will begin teaching the philosophy that governs her sacred work! Sail with Rhonda on her first cruise from Vancouver, British Columbia to Seward, Alaska -- enjoy the breathtaking scenery and be part of Rhonda's special workshops. While being subject to Rhonda's sourced and powerful information from collective consciousness, you'll also experience Alaska's Inside Passage in the 6 star luxury tradition of Regent Seven Seas, aboard the all-balcony Mariner!
